1.03 Filing of a Dispute Resolution Request

Any Aggrieved Person may file a Dispute Resolution Request seeking a determination with respect to any matter which is included within the scope of these Dispute Resolution Procedures as set forth in Section 1.02. An Aggrieved Person who files a Dispute Resolution Request is hereinafter referred to as a “Petitioner.” Other than as expressly set forth in these Dispute Resolution Procedures, nothing contained herein shall confer any rights or remedies upon any Aggrieved Person or Petitioner, or impose any duties or obligations upon the NCEL, which are not otherwise so conferred or imposed by the Act.

C. The Dispute Resolution Request shall include the following information

1. The name, address and telephone number of the Petitioner;
2. The signature of the Petitioner;
3. Identification of the solicitation or contract number or other matter that is the subject of the dispute;
4. A statement of the legal and factual grounds supporting the position of the Petitioner, including copies of relevant documents;
5. Any other documentation the Petitioner wishes to submit in support of Petitioner's position; and
6. A statement of the relief requested whether legal, equitable or otherwise. If a monetary award is requested, the amount shall be stated.

For a Dispute Resolution Request to be timely filed, the original Dispute Resolution Request manually signed by the Petitioner must be physically received by the NCEL within the time period prescribed in Section 1.04 below. Facsimile or any other electronically transmitted copies of the Dispute Resolution Request will not be accepted.

D. The Petitioner shall be required to provide a suitable "Dispute Bond" (as defined in Section 1.03E) to the NCEL in certified funds at the time the Dispute Resolution Request is filed. The purpose of this bond is to:

1. Discourage frivolous Dispute Resolution Requests and litigation;
2. Assure payment by the Petitioner of the costs incurred as a result of the Dispute Resolution Request, including reasonable attorney's fees of the Commission, in the event Petitioner appeals and such costs are adjudged against the Petitioner; and
3. Assure payment of all other amounts for which the Petitioner may be found liable, including, but not limited to, any loss of income to the NCEL resulting from the institution of a frivolous or unsuccessful appeal.

Failure to provide such Dispute Bond with any Dispute Resolution Request will result in the dismissal of such Dispute Resolution Request. An Aggrieved Person/Petitioner shall not have met the requirement in Section 1.04 to timely file a Dispute Resolution Request unless the applicable Dispute Bond accompanies the Dispute Resolution Request when it is timely filed. This requirement does not apply to any Petitioner who has already provided a Dispute Bond in the proper Dispute Bond amount as part of a bidding process.

- E. The amount of the “Dispute Bond” shall be the amount established in the applicable solicitation; provided, however, in the event that no amount is specified in the applicable solicitation, the Dispute Bond shall be the lesser of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) or ten percent (10%) of the contract amount in controversy.

1.04 Time for filing a Dispute Resolution Request

- A. Dispute Resolution Requests concerning a solicitation.

1. A Dispute Resolution Request in regard to a Major Procurement Contract solicitation for which the basis for the Dispute Resolution Request is apparent before the closing date for receipt of initial proposals shall be filed within five (5) business days after the deadline for Vendor questions established in the solicitation. A Dispute Resolution Request in regard to any other solicitation for which the basis for the Dispute Resolution Request is apparent before the closing date for receipt of initial proposals shall be filed before the closing date for receipt of initial proposals. Dispute Resolution Requests based upon a solicitation that are apparent before the bid opening shall be filed before bid opening.
2. Dispute Resolution Requests based upon an amendment to any solicitation, or upon any additional information requested or accepted by the NCEL with respect to any solicitation or response thereto, that are apparent before the closing date for receipt of proposals or any supplemental information requested by the NCEL shall be filed within five (5) business days after the deadline for Vendor questions or the date of the amendment, whichever date is later.
3. Subject to the provisions of Section 1.04C, if a Dispute Resolution Request is timely filed in accordance with these Dispute Resolution Procedures before the award of a contract, the award of such contract may be made before a decision is rendered on the Dispute Resolution Request.

- B. If the Commission or Director announces it’s intent not to require competitive bidding of a Major Procurement Contract, the Dispute Resolution Request must be filed within five (5) business days of the date such announcement is made, posted, published or otherwise made available to the public.

C. Dispute Resolution Request concerning an award of contract.

1. Any Aggrieved Person may protest the NCEL's decision to award a contract. Any such written Dispute Resolution Request shall be filed in the case of either a contract that has not been competitively bid by the NCEL or a contract that has been competitively bid by the NCEL, within five (5) business days after the earlier to occur of: (a) the NCEL's issuance of a notice of intent to award such contract; or (b) the NCEL's award of such contract is posted, published or otherwise made publicly available; or (c) the execution of any such contract.
2. If a Dispute Resolution Request seeking equitable relief regarding the award of any contract is filed with the Legal Counsel of the NCEL in accordance with Section 1.04C.1 and before a contract is executed, the NCEL may nonetheless award and enter into such contract if either: (a) such Dispute Resolution Request shall have been resolved in accordance with these Dispute Resolution Procedures, or (b) the Commission shall have made a written determination that the award of such contract without delay is necessary to protect substantial interests of the NCEL.
3. If a Dispute Resolution Request seeking equitable relief regarding the award of any contract is timely filed in accordance with these Dispute Resolution Procedures after a contract is executed, the NCEL and other party or parties to such contract may nonetheless continue to perform in accordance therewith until such Dispute Resolution Request shall have been resolved in accordance with these Dispute Resolution Procedures such that the contract must be set aside and/or terminated and no further work can be performed thereunder. By submitting a bid or proposal governed by these Dispute Resolution Procedures, each Vendor acknowledges and agrees that at any time that the Commission determines that the award and performance of a contract without delay is necessary to protect substantial interests of the NCEL, such award and contract shall not be enjoined, and by submitting such bid or proposal all Vendors waive any right they might have had to seek injunctive relief to enjoin such award or contract. In such cases, the NCEL and the other party/parties to any such award or contract shall continue to perform under such award or contract there being deemed to be an important state need, and adequate remedy at law, a waiver of injunctive relief by the Aggrieved Person Vendor and an otherwise available mechanism to remedy any contract issues by either terminating it or awarding a new contract or re-bidding the contract.

D. In all other cases pertaining to a solicitation or award of an agreement or a contract other than those covered in Sections 1.04A, 1.04B and 1.04C of these regulations, a Dispute Resolution Request must be filed within five (5) business days after the earlier to occur of: (1) the announcement of the Commission's decision to award is posted, published or otherwise made publicly available; or (2) the NCEL's issuance of a notice of intent to award such contract; or (3) the execution of any such contract.

- E. In all cases other than those covered in Sections 1.04A, 1.04B, 1.04C and 1.04D above, the Dispute Resolution Request must be filed within five (5) business days after the Aggrieved Person knows or should have known of the facts giving rise to the action complained of.
- F. Failure to file a written Dispute Resolution Request in accord with Section 1.03 within the applicable time limit provided in Section 1.04 shall bar any further administrative, legal, or equitable action of any kind or nature and in any body, court or agency. Time is of the essence in the various procurements of the NCEL.
- G. Failure to provide the applicable Dispute Bond in the amount required and as otherwise provided in Sections 1.03D and 1.03E within the applicable time frame shall result in an untimely filing and bar any further administrative, legal, or equitable action of any kind or nature and in any body, court or agency.

1.05 Notice of filing of a Dispute Resolution Request

In the event a Dispute Resolution Request is filed, the Director shall immediately give notice of the Dispute Resolution Request to the Commission and to the successful person or entity, if an award has been made or a contract entered into, or, if no award has been made or contract entered into, to all persons or entities who have timely submitted responsive bids or proposals on that procurement.

1.06 Confidential information

- A. Material submitted by a Petitioner shall not be withheld from any interested party except to the extent required by law.
- B. If the Petitioner believes the Dispute Resolution Request contains confidential information or trade secrets it must comply with all relevant provisions of the North Carolina Public Records Act to attempt to secure confidential treatment thereof; provided, however, all Petitioners acknowledge that the NCEL is subject to the Public Records Act and Open Meetings Laws of the State of North Carolina, and thus NCEL is not liable for any disclosure of any material submitted by any Petitioner regardless of the circumstances.

The Director (or his Designated Hearing Officer) shall notify the Petitioner in writing that the time for the issuance of a decision has been extended and the date by which a decision will be issued.
- E. If the Director (or his Designated Hearing Officer) fails to issue a decision within the time limits set forth in Sections 1.07B or 1.07D, the Petitioner may proceed as if the Director (or his Designated Hearing Officer) had issued an adverse decision to the Petitioner.
- F. In lieu of a written decision, the Director may, in his or her sole discretion, within thirty (30) calendar days after a Dispute Resolution Request is filed, give written notice to the Petitioner that the Dispute Resolution Request shall be resolved by a hearing conducted by the Director (or his Designated Hearing Officer) pursuant to the procedures for hearings set forth in Section 1.08. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Commission may at any time on its own motion direct that a Dispute Resolution Request be resolved by a hearing conducted by the Director (or his Designated Hearing Officer) pursuant to the procedures for hearings set forth in Section 1.08.
